April 19, 2017

Present: Kris Wurtz, Trish Braziel, Michelle Rinkol, Joan Lahm, Kelly Feehan, Jeff Ohnoutka, Deb Ohnoutka and Cathy Dusel Podliska.

Treasurer's Report: $38,087.93

Old Business: Amendment to the March 15, 2017 meeting minutes: Carmen Johnson asked for $70.00 to replace a garbage disposal, Mr. Ohnoutka took care of this issue. Joan Lahm requested $300 for the Greenhouse Project, she was given $2,235.

Looking for a Scotus Mothers Secretary for the 17-18 and 18-19 school year, please let Kelly Feehan or Kris Wurtz know of any candidates.

Craft Boutique – there are 5 people that have put their names in to shadow at the next Boutique.

Merchandise/Online 24/7 store, an appointment is being scheduled to visit about deadlines and sales (how progressing) after the first year.

Academic Recognition – still being worked on in committee

New Business: 7th Grade Parent Orientation is set for April 24th, Kris and Kelly will have a booth set up to sell Scotus Apparel, students to volunteer to help set up.

Mr. Ohnoutka spoke about some upcoming events at Scotus, Chuck Hagel to do a fund raiser on Sept. 22nd, Gala raised $30,000 of the $42,000 for the purchase of 300 laptops for the students. Science wing to be updated (lights, ceiling, tiles, etc). Landscaping to be done in 2-3 weeks. Need parent volunteers to help at school, will look to have a sign up sheet at registration or parent teacher's meetings. Open house for incoming 7-8-9 graders to tour the school, visit about extracurricular activities that Scotus offers (Mock Trial, One Acts, etc).

Open discussion: talked about Family Service Hours, need to lead students by example. If the student is in sports, then the parents of said student are put on a list for concession work, ticket takers, etc. In September, have a meeting early in the month for the new moms to ask questions about the new school year.

Next Meeting: Fall 2017, place and date to be determined.

Respectfully submitted,
Michelle Rinkol, Secretary
