Minutes: The minutes of the March meeting was reviewed by those present. The minutes was motioned by Nicole Blaser and seconded by Deb Ohnoutka. The minutes were approved.

Treasurer's Report: Tammy Bichlmeier was not present for the meeting and there was not a printed financial report but there was no new activity. The balance in the account is approximately $36,800.00.

Staff "Wish" List: Kris Wurtz presented gift certificates to the teachers that were present that had submitted applications and that were approved by Scotus Mothers. Gift certificates were for the following: $5,000.00 to the STEAM Lab. Carmen Johnson for an Air Fryer and an Instant Pot. Kelly Koranda for a classroom set of Bibles for Religion 9 & 10, Bridget McPhillips for ipads for Earth Science and Physical Science. Melanie Mimick for ipad for Extemporaneous Speaking Prep at Speech competitions. Tyler Linder, Janet Tooley, Tyler Swanson and Zach McPhillips for $500 for hardware for plt4m (platform) for the weight room and PE.

Craft Boutique – Deb Ohnoutka announced that the boutique found 2 new volunteers who are Julie Hoffman and Jolene Bock.

Merchandise: Sam Aydt, Kelly Feehan, and Kris Wurtz will work on the inventory. It was mentioned that some new items will be bought for the upcoming school year including hooded sweatshirts, long sleeve tees, caps, and half-zips.

It was mentioned that Linda Dolezal does Charlie Pockets and that will be considered also.

Carmen Johnson said maybe a fleece blanket with SCC on it would be a good item to sell.

Some small items were donated for Post Prom.

Future plans/ideas/recommendations: Next year's meeting agendas were talked about and the following are the ideas that were proposed. September – invite new 7th grade Mothers and the Staff Wish List. October – have the State of the School and this meeting will be held at Scotus. November – Planning for the boutique and due to Thanksgiving on the 22nd the meeting would be the 2nd Wednesday instead of the 3rd Wednesday. No meeting in December. January – Academic breakfast and Open Forum. February – STEAM Lab. March – Wrap up on boutique and Staff Wish List. April would be the Social.

Additional Items: It was decided to do a Staff Wish List twice a year starting with the upcoming school year. This will be done in September and March of each school year.

It was also decided that Scotus Mothers will start a Scotus Mothers Stewardship Scholarship based on service hours done by the students. Kelly Feehan and Kris Wurtz will work on this item.

The Youth Ministry/Youth Mission Trips will be holding a raffle to raise fund for their mission trips and Scotus Mothers was asked to donate a couple of items for it. A stadium chair and a sweatshirt will be donated. A motion was made by Jane Cline and seconded by Nicole Blaser to donate the items. The motion carried.

Next meeting: September 19th at the Chamber of Commerce.

Respectfully submitted,

Jane Cline, Secretary
